Mission Moments:

Medical ministry in Nepal

“We serve, Jesus heals” is the motto of Tansen Mission Hospital in western Nepal, which serves a population of one million. Gifts to Presbyterians Sharing support Dr. Nicholas Bauman, a surgeon appointed to the United Mission to Nepal. As part of the Tansen Hospital medical and surgical team, made up of Nepali and international physicians, Nick responds to referrals for gynecology, urology, and abdominal problems. Nick also teaches post-graduate students enrolled in the Medical Doctorate in General Practice. He shares, “Our faith community has always stressed the importance of mission, particularly the sense that our lives are not our own, but are gifts, and that we are entrusted by God to be stewards of this gift.” Nick is joined in Nepal by his wife Becky and their four children.

NEW WORSHIPPERS: On the small table in the entry narthex (beside the elevator), you will find coloured file folders which contain welcome and information materials for new worshippers to St. Andrew’s. If you have recently come among us, or if you have questions about who we are as a Christian faith community, we invite you to take home one of those file folders and peruse it at your leisure. It will help you become better acquainted with our life, work and helpful staff here at St. Andrew’s. Feel free to be in touch with us if we can be of support to you!

Nursery Care (located through the right front door of the Sanctuary) is provided for little ones in St. Andrew’s each Sunday. If your little one fusses, please feel free to walk them at the back of the church, or we would love to care for them in the nursery. You are welcome to bring them into the nursery before service begins as well. Our ushers will gladly show you to our nursery.

In light of the number of persons who suffer from asthma, allergies and breathing difficulties, we ask you to kindly consider eliminating the use of colognes and fragrances during worship

Kindly let us know of any births or deaths or those hospitalized so that we may respond. Simply share information with Dr. Horst or an elder or leave a message at the church office.

If you or someone you know is in need of prayer, please speak to Dr. Horst or leave a message on his voice mail (728-3991 ext. 3) and he will see to it that your request is passed on to members of our prayer network.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

47 Owen St. Barrie

Get ready to be rescued by Jesus! This years VBC theme is “Shipwrecked”! We are set to sail from July 16th - July 20th. If you are interested in volunteering for any aspect of VBC, including set up and “in camp” roles, please see Mia Drummond, or sign up using the sheet located outside the Sunday school room. Thank You

On Sunday, June 10th, St. Andrew's will be receiving new and transferring members into the full fellowship of our congregation. If you have been considering joining St. Andrew's, or even just reflecting on the possibility of becoming a member, please speak with Dr. Horst at your earliest convenience.

Prayer of Confession

God of mercy,
You have called upon us to be thankful for the gifts.
That in your boundless generosity You have given to us,
But too often we have taken them for granted
As if we deserved them.

You have called on us to be hopeful
Through the Good News of Jesus Christ,
But too often we despair
and have been weighed down by the cares of the world.

You have called us to be joyful

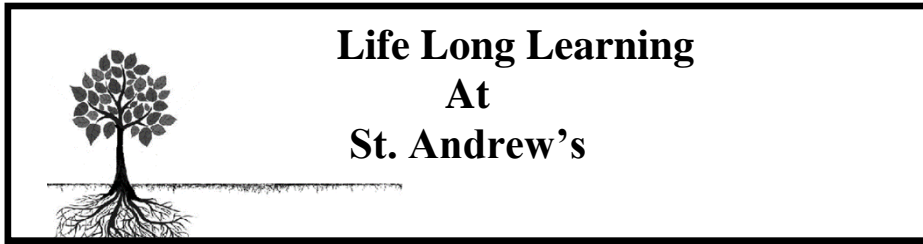

We invite you to Lyrica's May 26th Concert “Coming Home” at 7:30 p.m. at Burton Ave. United Church, 37 Burton Ave. The stunning works of American composer, Stephen Paulus (1949-2014), will be featured in this program on the theme of “home”. CARENOTES

People in pain need "the right words at the right time."

When life gets a little overwhelming, a CareNote can provide just the right words of encouragement, strength, guidance, and comfort.

CareNotes offer strength, help and healing for those who are hurting and provide a wealth of emotional, recovery, health, grief and eldercare support and information.

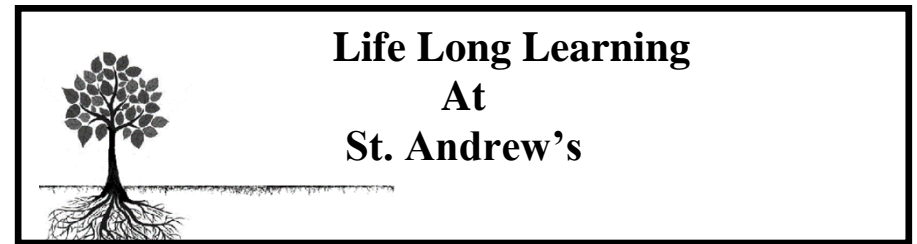

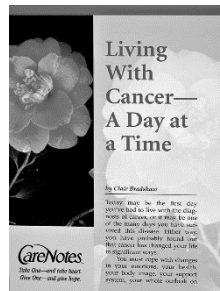

Now on display in the Gathering Hall CareNote Booklets are tailored to many different life situations and you are encouraged to take, read and share them freely.

This month's feature selection is titled:
Living With Cancer --- A Day At A Time

Today may be the first day you've had to live with the diagnosis of cancer, or it may be one of the many days you have survived this disease. Just as cancer has or will change your life, the way you live your life can also change your cancer.

Take One – And Take Heart
Give One – And Give Hope

Dr. Kerstin Mossman
Medical Assistance in Dying

Our committee was saddened to hear that Meredith Whitehead has taken a medical leave of absence. Although she is unable to speak, her team recommended Dr. Kerstin Mossman, and Dr. Mossman has graciously offered to speak in Meredith's place. You may remember Dr. Mossman from our Fall Speaker Series when she spoke on current trends in health care. She is a staff physician at the Barrie Community Health Centre and is well known for her commitment and innovative treatment of the elderly. As part of a Palliative Care Network, Dr. Mossman offers compassionate end of life care at Hospice Simcoe. Most recently, she presented at the Royal Victoria Regional Health Centre at an event on Medical Assistance in Dying. We are grateful that Dr. Mossman has agreed to share her experience and knowledge on this important topic.

A photo directory connects names with faces which strengthens our connection with each other!

The first phase of our church photo directory has successfully been completed. During four days of photo appointments in February and seven days in May, close to 150 church families had their photos taken and will be included in the directory. You all deserve a huge thank you for participating in this project! The volunteers who helped with appointment scheduling, greeting during the photo days, making phone call reminders, taking pictures, and editing printed information deserve a huge thank you as well! The layout and editing phases will continue in the coming months, while a congregational phone directory is also updated. Look forward to newly published photo and phone directories to be distributed in the fall. Two great resources to have near your phone!

Today's Music

Prelude: Prelude on "Down Ampney" H. Ley

Anthem: Like the Murmur of the Dove's Song Alan Smith

Like the murmur of the dove's song, Like the challenge of her flight, Like the vigor of the wind's rush, Like the new flame's eager might: Come, Holy Spirit, come.

To the members of Christ's body, To the branches of the vine, To the church in faith assembled, To her midst as gift and sign: Come, Holy Spirit, come.

With the healing of division, With the ceaseless voice of prayer, With the power to love and witness, With the peace beyond compare: Come, Holy Spirit, come.

Offertory: Come Holy Spirit J. S. Bach

Postlude: Prelude in A minor. J.S.Bach

Psalm 104: 24 – 34, 35b

O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the sea, great and wide, creeping things innumerable are there, living things both small and great.

There go the ships, and Leviathan that you formed to sport in it.

These all look to you to give them their food in due season;

When you give to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the ground.

May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord rejoice in his works.

Who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being.

May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the Lord.

Bless the Lord, O my soul. Praise the Lord!
