Mission Moments:

Celebrating Indigenous Culture

Hummingbird Ministries is one of nine Presbyterian Indigenous ministries in Canada supported by gifts to Presbyterians Sharing. It is committed to bringing peace and healing to Indigenous families living in BC's lower mainland. The ministry helps to restore hope by offering regular healing circles; working with the community in art and celebration; and providing educational and healing workshops, Bible studies, children's art and music programs. Hummingbird Ministries also runs a children's dance program in which Indigenous children are taught traditional Metis dances. Known as the Hummingbird Dancers, the children recently performed at a festival in East Vancouver in honor of National Indigenous Peoples Day, which recognized and celebrated the rich cultures of First Nations, Inuit and Métis people in Canada.

Welcome to our fully accessible church

We acknowledge that we meet on the traditional lands of the Huron-Wendat, Odawa and Anishinabek people. We acknowledge this territory's significance for the indigenous peoples who lived, and continue to live upon it, and whose practices and spiritualities were tied to the land and continue to develop in relationship to the territory and its other inhabitants today. We are committed to living forward in the spirit of reconciliation and respect.

Nursery Care (located through the right front door of the Sanctuary) is provided for little ones in St. Andrew's each Sunday. You are welcome to bring them into the nursery before service begins. Our ushers will gladly show you to our nursery.

Kindly let us know of any births or deaths or those hospitalized so that we may respond. Simply share information with Dr. Horst or an elder or leave a message at the church office.

If you or someone you know is in need of prayer, please speak to Dr. Horst or leave a message on his voice mail (728-3991 ext. 3) and he will see to it that your request is passed on to members of our prayer network.

CARENOTES

October 2018

People in pain need "the right words at the right time."

When life gets a little overwhelming, a CareNote can provide just the right words of encouragement, strength, guidance, and comfort.

CareNotes offer strength, help and healing for those who are hurting and provide a wealth of emotional, recovery, health, grief and eldercare support and information.

Now on display in the Gathering Hall CareNote Booklets are tailored to many different life situations. You are encouraged to take, read and share them freely.

This month's feature selection is titled:
What is Palliative Care ---- And When Is It Called For

In one sense all health care is palliative, because the verb "to palliate" means to sooth (without curing), to comfort, to alleviate, or at least to lessen someone's pain and suffering.

Question's that come to mind surrounding palliative care are:

- What exactly is palliative care?
- When is it time to utilize palliative care?
- What are the issues involved in palliative care?
- Is there palliative care beyond medications?

For answers to these and other questions read this month's pick-of-the-month CareNote.

Life Long Learning At St. Andrew's

Today's Music

Prelude:            Muzete            Delalande

Anthem:            Gentle Voice            Lee Dengler

Far above the noise of life
There's a voice that is gently calling
"Leave behind your cares and strife.
Come to me, I will give you rest.

Bring your fear and bring your pain
Bring your anger and bring your worry."
Do you hear the voice of Jesus, gently calling,
"Come unto me"?

Gentle voice, so meek and mild;
Gentle words of understanding
"You are my beloved child.
Come to me I will give you rest.

Bring your fear and bring your pain
Bring your heart aches bring your sorrow."
Do you hear the voice of Jesus, gently calling,
"Come unto me"?

Gentle voice, so full of love.
Gentle words so rich in mercy.
"You are my beloved child.
Come to Me. I will give you rest."

Psalm 104: 1-9, 24, 35.

Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, you are very great. You are clothed with honor and majesty.

Wrapped in light as with a garment. You stretch out the heavens like a tent.

You set the beams of your chambers on the waters, you make the clouds your chariot, you ride on the wings of the wind.

You make the winds your messengers, fire and flame your ministers.

You set the earth on its foundations, so that it shall never be shaken.

You cover it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.

At your rebuke they flee; at the sound of your thunder they take to flight.

They rose up to the mountains, ran down to the valleys to the place that you appointed for them.

You set a boundary that they may not pass, so that they might not again cover the earth.

O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

Bless the LORD, O my soul. Praise the LORD!
